

THE KONG COMPANY, LLC MINIMUM ADVERTISED PRICE POLICY
Effective August 1, 2018

The Kong Company, LLC (“KONG”) has determined that certain advertising practices undermine KONG’s trade reputation, brands, and premium image within the target consumer population and discourage KONG’s retailers and resellers from investing in the KONG product lines and providing the best possible service and support to consumers. Accordingly, to protect the integrity of the KONG brand, KONG has adopted this unilateral Minimum Advertised Price Policy (the “Policy”), which applies to all Authorized Resellers, as defined under KONG’s Authorized Reseller Policy, and all Authorized Retailers, as defined under KONG’s Authorized Retailer Policy, in the United States of America (collectively, “Sellers”).

The Policy applies to advertisements of the KONG products listed on the KONG Minimum Advertised Price Schedule (“Covered Products”). The KONG Minimum Advertised Price Schedule will be made available to all Sellers and may be amended by KONG in its sole discretion at any time. KONG is solely responsible for establishing the minimum advertised price (“MAP”) for each Covered Product and communicating the MAP to all Sellers. While Sellers remain free to advertise and sell all KONG Products at any price they deem appropriate, it is a violation of this Policy for a Seller to advertise any Covered Product at a price lower than the MAP, except as specifically enumerated in the section on Permitted Advertising Practices.

This Policy does not constitute an agreement between KONG and any other entity. KONG neither solicits nor will it accept any assurance of compliance with this Policy from any Seller or other party. Each Seller must independently choose whether to comply with the terms of this Policy. This Policy is not negotiable and will not be altered for any individual Seller. This Policy applies only to advertised prices and does not affect the prices that a Seller may charge for KONG Products.

POLICY COVERAGE

This Policy applies to any practices that, whether directly or indirectly, advertise a price for a Covered Product below the MAP. Types of advertisements that could violate this Policy, unless expressly allowed under Permitted Advertising Practices, include but are not limited to the following:

- i. Offering coupons, discounts, Seller rebates, or other inducements that, when applied, promote a price lower than the MAP.
- ii. Bundling Covered Products with other Covered Products or other products or services (whether made by or provided by KONG or another entity) in a manner that implies below-MAP pricing for the bundled Covered Product.
- iii. Using strikeouts or strikethroughs of pricing information, “see price in cart,” or other statements implying a below-MAP price for a Covered Product.
- iv. Permitting any third-party to alter the advertised price for any Covered Product.

For purposes of this Policy, the terms “advertise” and “advertisement” include all promotional or pricing information displayed via any type of media, including, but not limited to, newspapers, catalogs, magazines, flyers, brochures, television, radio ads, billboards, signage (except signs displayed within a brick-and-mortar selling location), websites, blogs, social media, affiliate marketing networks/comparison shopping engines, Seller-initiated text messages or emails to customers or prospective customers, mobile/smart phone applications, banner ads, online product ads, paid search ads, pay-per-click ads, display ads, mobile ads, product listing ads, sponsored links, ads in any other media in a digital format that is communicated or conveyed via the Internet, and any other marketing or promotional materials, whether displayed online or through broadcast or other media.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, pricing information displayed at the final online checkout stage of a transaction is not considered “advertising” under this Policy. The “final online checkout stage” is the stage when the Covered Product is put into a shopping cart that contains the customer’s name, shipping address, email address, and payment information. Pricing information in the “shopping cart” or “checkout” stages must be obscured technically so that it is not retrievable by shopping and pricing engines, and not displayed on search page results within the Seller’s own website.

PERMITTED ADVERTISING PRACTICES

Notwithstanding the prohibitions above, it is permissible under this Policy for Sellers to engage in the following advertising practices:

- i. Bundling Covered Products with other Covered Products or with other products or services (whether made by or provided by KONG or another entity), when the prospective customer will not be presented with pricing information for the bundle as part of the promotional offering. To illustrate, it would be permissible under this Policy for a Seller to offer a promotion to “buy two and get 40% off a third KONG product”; it would not be permissible for the Seller to offer a promotion to “buy two KONG products for $20.”
- ii. Offering promotions in which customers may purchase a bundle that includes Covered Products in order to receive a gift card or similar store reward from the Seller for use on future purchases.
- iii. Advertising that a customer may “call for price,” “text for price,” or “email for price,” as long as no price is listed and no automated call, text message, or “bounce-back” email is used in response.
- iv. Providing promotions or discounts applicable to substantially all products sold by a Seller though a storewide sale offered no more than once per year, provided such promotions are offered for one-time use over a period of no more than 7 days.
- v. Providing promotions or discounts applicable in connection with a new store opening, provided such promotions are offered for one-time use over a period of no more than 7 days. Storewide sales tied to store openings may be offered only at the new store location.
- vi. Offering promotions or discounts applicable to substantially all products sold by a Seller in connection with a reward program tied to the consumer’s use of a private label or store-branded credit or debit card.
- vii. Offering discounted promotional pricing through subscription services such as Auto Ship and Save, so long as the promotional offer provides for no more than 50% off the MAP for the initial purchase and no more than 15% off the MAP for subsequent recurring purchases.
- viii. Advertising free or reduced-price shipping, as long as such offer applies to all or almost all other products offered by a Seller in the same product category.
- ix. Offering discounted promotional pricing of up to 10% off the MAP for customers who order Covered Products online to either be picked up in-store or curbside or by a same-day delivery service, as long as such offer applies to substantially all products sold by a Seller.

From time to time, KONG may announce MAP holidays or promotions that are applicable to all Sellers, during which periods, a Seller that advertises a Covered Product in accordance with the terms of the authorized promotion will not be deemed to have violated the Policy. KONG will notify all Sellers of any such authorized promotions, generally not fewer than 30 days in advance.

NON-COMPLIANCE

KONG will take the following actions against any Seller that fails to comply with this Policy with respect to the advertisement of any Covered Product:

- i. For a Seller's first violation of the Policy, KONG will notify the Seller in writing of such failure.
- ii. For a Seller's second violation of the Policy during a 12-month period following the first violation, KONG will notify the Seller in writing of such failure and will immediately revoke the Seller's "authorized" status for thirty (30) days and, if the Seller purchases Covered Products directly from KONG, place the Seller's account on shipping hold for thirty (30) days. KONG will revoke its acceptance of any pending orders, cancel any pending shipments to the Seller, and not accept any new orders from the Seller during this 30-day period.
- iii. For a Seller's third violation of the Policy during a 12-month period following the first violation, KONG will, for a 12-month period, revoke the Seller's "authorized" status and, if the Seller purchases Covered Products directly from KONG, suspend its business relationship with the Seller. KONG will revoke its acceptance of any pending orders and cancel any pending shipments to the Seller.

A continuing violation of the MAP Policy will be deemed to constitute a subsequent violation if it continues for more than seven (7) days after the Seller receives notice of the violation.

The Policy will be enforced by KONG in its sole discretion and without notice. Sellers have no right to enforce the Policy.

POLICY ADMINISTRATION

KONG may update, revise, suspend, terminate, reinstitute, or modify this Policy at any time in its sole discretion. KONG shall make any such modifications available to all Sellers. If KONG changes the MAP on any Product, it will provide at least 14 days' notice to Sellers before such change takes effect.

No KONG employee or agent, including a Seller's sales representative, is authorized to modify, interpret, or grant exceptions to this Policy; solicit or obtain the agreement of any person to this Policy; or otherwise discuss any aspect of this Policy with any Seller, including that Seller's or any other Seller's compliance with the terms of the Policy. Any questions about this Policy should be submitted in writing and directed to KONG's MAP Policy Administrator at MAP@kongcompany.com. KONG will accept no other form of communication from Sellers regarding the Policy.

This Policy is effective as of the Effective Date set forth above and supersedes all prior KONG policies regarding minimum advertised prices or resale prices for KONG Products applicable to Sellers.
